

← Review

Question 1

Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 1, you learnt what teachers and learners need to know about vocabulary and grammar.

Choose the correct statement:

- a. In order to communicate better in English, learners need to know the meaning, form, pronunciation and how a vocabulary or grammar item is used in a sentence.
- b. In order to communicate better in English, learners need to memorise grammatically correct sentences.

Your answer is correct.

← Review

Question 2

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 2, you learnt about how to prepare for a vocabulary lesson or activity.

Choose the correct statement:

- a. Teachers should focus on pronunciation first before helping learners to understand the meaning of new vocabulary.
- b. New vocabulary needs to be presented in context to help learners thoroughly understand the meaning.

Your answer is correct.

Question 3

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

← Review

Question 3

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 3, you learnt how to manage vocabulary activities and lessons.

Choose the correct statement:

- a. Repetition, recycling and freer practice activities help learners to use new vocabulary.
- b. Rote learning helps learners to use new vocabulary.

Your answer is correct.

Question 4

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 4, you learnt about how learners learn grammar.

Choose the correct statement:

← Review

Question 4

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 4, you learnt about how learners learn grammar.

Choose the correct statement:

- a. Concept checking questions (CCQs) can be used to check if learners have understood the meaning of a grammar point.
- b. Freer practice activities can be used to check if learners have understood the meaning of a grammar point.

Your answer is correct.

Question 5

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

← Review

Question 5

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 5, you learnt about how learners can apply grammar.

Choose the correct statement:

a. Games are not useful in language learning.

b. Teachers can introduce games to help learners to practise grammar in a fun way.

Your answer is correct.

Question 6

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 6, you learnt about how to assess vocabulary and grammar and identify your professional

← Review

Question 6

Complete
Mark 1 out of 1

In Unit 6, you learnt about how to assess vocabulary and grammar and identify your professional needs in this area.

Choose the correct statement:

- a. Grammar and vocabulary can only be assessed through summative tests.
- b. Grammar and vocabulary can be assessed formatively and summatively, through tests, and assessing speaking and writing.

Your answer is correct.

